

Nana Adjoa
Sifa Amponsah

Name of business: Guzakuza

Position in the Company: Lead

Country: Ghana

About the business: Guzakuza grows healthy foods on its natural farm while providing young women in Africa and the diaspora with relevant resources to build resilient Agribusinesses in Africa. Kuza in Guzakuza simply means Grow. We therefore grow healthy foods and wealthy women Agripreneurs. Our Dopal biomimicry farm produces natural healthy foods for the African people. All our initiatives inspire women to build resilient Agribusinesses by providing relevant resources including training, mentorship, coaching, access to market and finance.

Nana Adjoa Sifa Amponsah is the initiator and Lead of Guzakuza, a social enterprise empowering young women to create jobs, wealth and food security. She works extensively on initiatives which have a direct impact on women and girls in Africa such as Ignite and SheFarms. In addition to being a founder, a farmer and a speaker, she also serve as a member of the UN Women's Economic Empowerment Reference Group in ESAR.

Find out more:

Website: <https://guzakuza.org/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Guzakuza>

Twitter: Business- <https://twitter.com/guzakuza> | Personal - <https://twitter.com/adjoasifa>